

OJJDP FY 2022 Title II
Juvenile Problem/Needs Analysis Data Elements
(Submit in JustGrants)

In addition to the requirements under 34 U.S.C. § 11133(a)(7), the following examples of data elements may inform the development of an analysis of juvenile problems and needs:

- i. Juvenile arrests by offense type, gender, age, and race.
- ii. Number and characteristics (by offense type, gender, race, and age) of juveniles referred to juvenile court, a probation agency, or special intake unit for allegedly committing a delinquent or status offense.
- iii. Number of cases handled informally (nonpetitioned) and formally (petitioned) by gender, race, and type of disposition (e.g., diversion, probation, commitment, residential treatment).
- iv. Number of delinquent offenders and status offenders admitted, by gender and race, to juvenile detention facilities and adult jails and lockups (if applicable).
- v. Data related to the availability, scope, and accessibility of mental health services for youth in the juvenile justice system and availability, scope, and accessibility of the prevention and treatment services in rural areas.
- vi. Trend data and other social, economic, legal, and organizational conditions considered relevant to delinquency prevention programming.
