Revisiting OJJDP's Human Trafficking Performance Measures

In response to the Government Accountability Office's (GAO's) request for improved data on government-funded services for American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) youth human trafficking victims, OJJDP identified three grant programs most likely to serve this population.

Selected Grant Programs:

1. Reducing Reliance on Confinement and Improving Community-Based Responses for Girls At-Risk of Entering the Juvenile Justice System

2. Defending Childhood AI/AN Policy Initiative: Supporting Trauma-Informed Juvenile Justice Systems for Tribes

3. Mentoring for Child Victims of Commercial Sexual Exploitation and Domestic Sex Trafficking

Performance Measures (Updated)

1-2) Total number of ~~American Indian/Alaskan Native~~ human trafficking victims (existing and new) served through the grant award during the reporting period by type of trafficking (short and long term)

3-4) Total number of ~~AI/AN~~ human trafficking victims served through the grant award who experience re-victimization during the reporting period by type of trafficking (short and long term)

5) Total number of services provided to ~~AI/AN~~ trafficking victims during the reporting period by the type of service

6) Total number of training events held on human trafficking/number of participants TTA grantees only
Data collection began on October 9, 2017.

Defining Human Trafficking

Sex Trafficking

- The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, patronizing, or soliciting of a person for the purposes of a commercial sex act, in which the commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such an act has not attained 18 years of age.

  (The Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000)

- For purposes of service provision and data reporting, any sex act conducted by a youth in exchange for a benefit (money, drugs, shelter, clothes, etc.) will be considered as sex trafficking, even if there isn't a third party involved.

Labor Trafficking

- The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, using force, fraud, or coercion for subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.

- Can be difficult to detect and may involve activities that are themselves crimes (drug sales, gang activity, credit card scams, etc.), leading to prosecution instead of intervention.
