In fiscal year 2020, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) provided timely and reliable information to help juvenile justice practitioners prevent and respond to delinquency and child victimization. Connecting with the field ensures that vital information and resources reach the people who are working to make a difference in the lives of youth.

Select training and technical assistance and communications efforts are highlighted below. For more information, visit ojjdp.ojp.gov.

Training and Technical Assistance

In fiscal year 2020—

- OJJDP received 1,726 requests for training and technical assistance via TTA360, OJJDP’s user-friendly online request system. Each of the 50 states submitted requests, as did the District of Columbia and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

- The most requested training topics were mentoring (47 percent), child safety (40 percent), youth and family engagement (16 percent), and delinquency prevention (13 percent).¹

- OJJDP delivered 1,024 trainings, including 375 webinars. Approximately 21,570 professionals participated in the webinars, which were designed to keep researchers, practitioners, and policymakers up to date on trends in the field.
