

John Rector

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Administrator, 1977–1979

Appointed by President Jimmy Carter

Now

Retired; serves as special counsel, National Community Pharmacists
Association

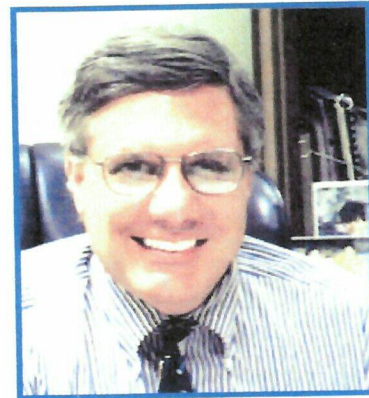

Background

Born: 1943 (Seattle)

Hometown: Bakersfield, Calif.

Education: University of California at Berkeley, B.S., Criminology/Political Science

Hasting College of Law, Calif., J.D.

Experience

- Attorney, Civil Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice
- Counsel and Legislative Assistant, Sen. Birch Bayh (D-Ind.)
- A Chief Counsel and Staff Director, U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee, subcommittee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency (pharmaceuticals, firearms and juvenile justice)
- Policy adviser to presidential campaigns of Birch Bayh, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, Walter Mondale, Michael Dukakis and Bill Clinton
- Chair of advisory board, National Juvenile Law Center
- Administrator, OJJDP
- Senior Vice President of Government Affairs, National Community Pharmacists Association