Connecting With the Field
Fiscal Year 2019 Highlights

In fiscal year 2019, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) provided timely and reliable information to help juvenile justice practitioners prevent and respond to delinquency and child victimization. Connecting with the field ensures that vital information and resources reach the people who are working to make a difference in the lives of youth.

Select training and technical assistance and communications efforts are highlighted below. For more information, visit ojjdp.ojp.gov.

Training and Technical Assistance

In fiscal year 2019—

- OJJDP received 1,836 requests for training and technical assistance via TTA360, OJJDP’s user-friendly online request system. Each of the 50 states submitted requests, as did the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Guam.

- The three most requested training and technical assistance topics were mentoring (41 percent), child safety (28 percent), and youth and family engagement (16 percent).

- OJJDP delivered 894 trainings, including 279 webinars. More than 13,500 professionals participated in the webinars, which were designed to keep researchers, practitioners, and policymakers up to date on trends in the field.

Digital Outreach

In fiscal year 2019—

- More than 25,643 juvenile justice and child protection professionals were subscribed to OJJDP News @ a Glance, the Office’s award-winning e-newsletter.

- OJJDP shared up-to-date information with its 6,478 Twitter and 5,249 Facebook followers.

- Approximately 21,100 subscribers received e-mails through OJJDP’s JUVJUST listserv with announcements of publications, research findings, funding opportunities, and upcoming events.
