FY 2005 OJJDP Continuation Programs

The following application guidelines provide instructions for applying for funding under OJJDP's FY 2005 Continuation Programs.

GMS Registration

All applications for FY 2005 OJJDP Continuation Programs must be submitted online through OJP's Grants Management System (GMS) (<https://grants.ojp.usdoj.gov>).

Applicants must register for this solicitation by selecting "FY 2005 OJJDP Continuation Programs—State Relations and Assistance Division" from the Funding Opportunities page in GMS. To register, applicants must select "Apply Now," read the warning message that appears, and select "Continue." Applicants must register on GMS at least one week before the application due date (see page 6).

Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424)

Applicants must complete the Overview, Applicant Information, and Project Information sections of GMS. These sections provide the information needed to generate the Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424), a standard form used by most federal agencies.

Applicants will need to provide the following information to complete the SF-424:

- ❖ DUNS Number. Applicants can request a free DUNS number by calling 800-333-0505. Applicants must have a DUNS number before beginning the application process.
- ❖ Type of Application. Select "Continuation" in the drop-down menu for "Type of Application."
- ❖ Authorized Representative. Applicants must ensure that the information for the authorizing official and alternate contact is entered correctly in the GMS system. The authorizing official is the individual authorized to accept grant funds in the applicant's organization. If the individual applying online is not the applicant organization's signing authority, that individual must list the authorizing official's name and contact information where appropriate.

Assurances and Certifications

Applicants are required to review and accept the "Assurances" and "Certifications Regarding Lobbying; Debarment, Suspension, and Other Responsibility Matters; and the Drug-Free Workplace Requirement" in order to receive federal funds under this program. To accept the Assurances and Certifications in GMS, select the Assurances and Certifications link and click the "Accept" button at the bottom of the screen. Please verify that the contact information (name, address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail address) for the applicant's authorizing official is correct.

Budget Detail Worksheet (Attachment #1)

The applicant must provide a budget that (1) is complete, allowable, and cost effective in relation to the proposed activities, (2) shows the cost calculations demonstrating how the applicant arrived at the total amount requested, and (3) provides a brief supporting budget narrative to link costs with project implementation (see below for more about the budget narrative). When preparing your application, please refer to the Office of Justice Programs' Financial Guide for guidance on topics such as allowable costs, indirect costs, accounting systems, and financial records (see appendix for complete table of contents). The Financial Guide is available on OJP's Web site (www.ojp.usdoj.gov/FinGuide/).

The Budget Detail Worksheet—which must be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc), Excel worksheet (.xls), PDF file (.pdf), or text document (.txt)—must include both a detailed worksheet itemizing all costs and a narrative explaining and justifying each budget item. Be sure that the file name of the attachment includes the words "budget detail worksheet" (e.g., budget_detail_worksheet.doc). Below are brief descriptions of the budget worksheet and budget narrative:

- ❖ Budget Worksheet. All costs must be allocated under the following categories: personnel, fringe benefits, travel, equipment, supplies, construction, consultants/contracts, other, and indirect costs. All line items must show how the cost was calculated. For example, costs for personnel should show the annual salary rate and the percentage of time devoted to the project for each employee to be paid through grant funds. The budget worksheet should present a complete and detailed itemization of all proposed costs.
- ❖ Budget Narrative. The budget narrative shall follow the content of the budget worksheet and provide justification for all proposed costs. For example, the narrative should explain how fringe benefits were calculated, how travel costs were estimated, why particular items of equipment or supplies must be purchased, and how overhead or indirect costs (if applicable) were calculated. The budget narrative should justify the specific items listed in the budget worksheet (particularly supplies, travel, and equipment) and demonstrate that all costs are reasonable. Please specify the beginning and end dates of your fiscal year.

A sample budget detail worksheet is provided in the appendix. Sample budget forms can be downloaded from OJP's Web site (www.ojp.usdoj.gov/forms.htm).

Please note: total costs specified in the complete budget must match the amount provided in the Estimated Funding section of the Project Information screen in GMS. All funds listed in the budget will be subject to audit.

Program Narrative (Attachment #2)

Applicants must submit a program narrative that presents a detailed description of the purpose, goals, objectives, strategies, design, and management of the proposed program. The program narrative—which must be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc), Excel worksheet (.xls), PDF file (.pdf), or text document (.txt)—must be double spaced, use a standard 12-point font (Times New Roman is preferred), have 1-inch margins, and not exceed 25 pages. (Please number pages “1 of 25,” “2 of 25,” and so forth.) Be sure that the file name of the attachment includes the words “program narrative” (e.g., program_narrative.doc).

The program narrative must include six sections: (1) project abstract; (2) accomplishments to date and future planning; (3) problem(s) to be addressed; (4) goals, objectives, and performance measures; (5) project design/strategy; and (6) management and organizational capability. The connections between and among each of these sections should be clearly delineated. For example, the goals and objectives should derive directly from the problem(s) to be addressed. Similarly, the project design/strategy section should clearly explain how the program’s structure and activities will accomplish the goals and objectives identified in the previous section.

Project Abstract

The project abstract should not exceed 200 words. It should briefly describe the project’s purpose, identify the population to be served using grant funds, and summarize the activities that will be implemented to achieve the project’s goals and objectives. These goals and objectives should focus on short-term and intermediate outcomes (see “Goals, Objectives, and Performance Measures” below), and the abstract should also describe how progress towards these goals will be measured. Finally, the abstract should contain a brief description of the connections between the project’s activities and potential reductions in juvenile delinquency, child maltreatment, or other long-term goals. A sample project abstract is contained in the appendix.

Accomplishments to Date and Future Planning

Provide a brief description of accomplishments to date, in particular those in the last funding period. List in chronological order a schedule of accomplishments, progress, or milestones anticipated with the new funding request. Explain the reason for the supplemental funding request, and justify the need for additional funding. If there have been significant changes in the project's scope, objectives, location, approach, or time delays, explain the circumstances, justify the change(s), and describe the impact of the change(s) on the project.

Problem(s) To Be Addressed

This section of the program narrative must identify the problem(s) or issue(s) the applicant will address through this project (e.g., gang activity, underage drinking, drug abuse, truancy, youth employment, school performance, etc.). Local data should be used to provide evidence that the problem(s) exists, demonstrate the size and scope of the problem, and document the effects of the problem(s) on the target population and the larger community. Applicants should also describe and cite any known previous and/or current attempts to address the problem(s).

Goals, Objectives, and Performance Measures

This section of the program narrative must outline the specific goals and objectives of the project. The goals and objectives should be clearly connected to the problem(s) identified in the preceding section.

The objectives should be measurable. (Examples of measurable objectives might include the following: to provide school-based and community services for 40 youth returning from commitment/placement, to increase the percentage of youth who successfully complete their current academic grade, to expand counseling services to cover an additional 50 at-risk youth.)

It is difficult to demonstrate with statistical validity that a complex, long-term outcome such as a reduction in juvenile crime or drug use is the result of activities associated with an individual program lasting only 1 or 2 years. Such attributions typically require the use of well-controlled research and evaluation studies using control groups and random assignment of participants. Because of financial, practical, and ethical considerations, this type of evaluation is usually beyond the means of most local or even statewide programs. If the project does not incorporate this type of study, OJJDP recommends that the applicant select goals and objectives that focus on intermediate outcomes—that is, outcomes that previous research indicates are connected in some way to reductions in juvenile delinquency or child abuse/neglect. These intermediate outcomes might include such things as increased school attendance, improvements in academic skills, enhanced parenting skills, and improved family relationships. While the ultimate, long-term goal of the project may be to reduce delinquency, a more feasible and accurately measurable goal would be to enhance the academic skills of program participants. Whatever goals and objectives are selected, the connections between these and juvenile delinquency or child abuse/neglect should be noted in this section.

If the project has previously received funding or is ongoing, applicants must address what progress has been made in meeting the project's goals and objectives for the last 12 months, or since the project was initially funded. Applicants should briefly describe the project's major successes and challenges and should note any changes in the project's original goals and objectives made as a result.

To ensure compliance with the Government Performance and Results Act, Public Law 103–62, applicants are required to collect and report data that measure the results of the activities implemented with this grant. Performance measures should reflect the specific problem(s), goals and objectives, and design/strategy (see next section) associated with this grant. Collection of performance measures will allow OJP to provide Congress with measurable results associated with federally funded programs.

Performance measures should be incorporated into an overall plan for evaluating the effectiveness of the project. Applicants should explain what will be measured, how often measurements will be required, and who will be responsible for conducting these assessments. Wherever possible, independent data sources (i.e., sources that do not derive from the program itself and data that is not collected by program staff) should be identified and incorporated into the project's evaluation plan. For example, a community-based program that provides afterschool tutoring should, if possible, use information obtained from school records to assess its progress. Applicants should also describe how they will maintain the security of the data they will collect, identify who will have access to the data, and explain how access will be restricted to these authorized individuals. If possible, applicants should identify the specific data collection instruments that will be used. It is expected that the project's performance measures will be closely linked to the project's goals and objectives.

Project Design/Strategy

The project design/strategy section of the program narrative must describe what the applicant is proposing to do and how they intend to do it. The applicant should identify the program's target population(s) and explain how the strategy will achieve the goals and objectives identified in the previous section.

The applicant should include a logic model that graphically illustrates the connections between goals, objectives, and program activities. Sample logic models are included in the appendix.

This section must be very detailed, and should describe specifically how the project will operate throughout the duration of the funding period. Applicants are encouraged to select evidence-based practices for their programs. Potential sources of information about evidence-based practices are listed in the appendix. This section must also discuss plans for sustainability (i.e., how the program will continue to operate beyond the period of the OJJDP grant award).

The project design/strategy section should also include details regarding any leveraged resources (cash or in-kind) from local sources to support the project. In addition, the applicant should identify any other federal, state, or private foundation grants that serve the same local area and target population(s).

Finally, applicants should describe any research or evaluation studies that support the entire project design, or any of its components. Previous research related to the applicant's selected problem area should also be noted to indicate the applicant's understanding of the causes of—and potential solutions to—the problem(s) to be addressed. A reference list that may be helpful in this regard can be accessed at www.ojjdp.ncjrs.org/researchreferences.

Although applicants are expected to review the research literature for any relevant studies, they should also explore whether any unpublished local sources of research or evaluation data are available.

Management and Organizational Capability

This section of the program narrative must describe how the project will be managed and staffed locally. Management and staffing patterns should be clearly and obviously connected to the project design described in the previous section. This section should describe the experience and capability of the applicant's organization and any contractors that will be used to effectively implement and manage this effort and its associated federal funding. Any prior experience implementing projects of similar design and/or magnitude should be highlighted in this section.

Other Attachments (Attachments #3–6)

Applicants must submit the following materials as attachments to their GMS application. Be sure that the file name for each attachment is descriptive of its contents (e.g., timeline.doc, memorandums.doc, etc.). The four attachments—which must be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc), Excel worksheet (.xls), PDF file (.pdf), or text document (.txt)—are described below:

- ❖ Timeline (Attachment #3). Applicants must submit an annualized project timeline containing each project goal, related objective, activity, expected completion date, and responsible person or organization. Please do not use actual calendar months/years in your timeline; instead prepare the timeline using “Year 1,” “Month 1,” etc. See sample timeline in the appendix.

- ❖ Résumés and Job Descriptions (Attachment #4). Applicants must submit résumés of all key personnel along with job descriptions outlining roles and responsibilities for all key positions.
 - ❖ Letters/Memorandums (Attachment #5). Applicants must, where appropriate, submit letters of support/commitment and memorandums of understanding.
 - ❖ Geographic Information (Attachment #6). To help the Office of Justice Programs develop a geographic information system (GIS) strategic planning capacity, GMS applicants must provide the following two items of information on the geographic area(s) served by the funded activity (“service area(s)”) in the formats specified below:
 - ◆ Physical address. If the mailing address is a P.O. Box, specify the physical address(es) of the location(s) where services are to be provided. If the mailing address is in a rural area with no street address, include the nearest street intersection. If the program has multiple service areas, include the required information for each.

 - ◆ Map and Street Description. Please provide a road map (with local detail) with the service area(s) clearly depicted. The map should be marked with information identifying the grant application it is tied to, including applicant name, application number, and contact name and phone number. Also include a written description of streets bounding the service area. If GIS files are available, they can be e-mailed to OJJDP via Bob Samuels at Bob.Samuels@usdoj.gov.

Due Date

The program office provides specific deadlines in the cover letter or transmittal materials. Faxed or mailed applications or supplemental materials will not be accepted. Applications for this program are due no later than 90 days before program operations are expected to begin. Applicants must register on GMS at least one week before the application due date.

Other Requirements

Anti-Lobbying Act

Applicants should be aware that the Anti-Lobbying Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1913, recently was amended to expand significantly the restriction on use of appropriated funding for lobbying. This expansion also makes the anti-lobbying restrictions enforceable via large civil penalties, with civil fines between $10,000 and $100,000 per each individual occurrence of lobbying activity. These restrictions are in addition to the anti-lobbying and lobbying disclosure restrictions imposed by 31 U.S.C. § 1352. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) is currently in the process of amending the OMB cost circulars and the common rule (codified at 28 C.F.R. part 69 for U.S. Department of Justice grantees) to reflect these modifications. However, in the interest of full disclosure, all applicants must understand that no federally appropriated funding made available under this grant program may be used, either directly or indirectly, to support the enactment, repeal, modification or adoption of any law, regulation, or policy, at any level of government, without the express approval by OJP. Any violation of this prohibition is subject to a minimum $10,000 fine for each occurrence. This prohibition applies to all activity, even if currently allowed within the parameters of the existing OMB circulars.

Civil Rights Compliance

All recipients of federal grant funds are required to comply with nondiscrimination requirements contained in various federal laws. In the event that a court or administrative agency makes a finding of discrimination on grounds of race, color, religion, national origin (see also “Services to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons”), gender, disability, or age against a recipient of funds after a due process hearing, the recipient must agree to forward a copy of the finding to the Office of Civil Rights, Office of Justice Programs. All applicants should consult the Assurances required to be submitted with the application to understand the applicable legal and administrative requirements.

Confidentiality and Human Subjects Protection

Applicants should be aware of the U.S. Department of Justice’s requirements for privacy and confidentiality in research and statistical efforts. These requirements are stipulated by 42 U.S.C. § 3879g. The U.S. Department of Justice has issued a specific regulation concerning the implementation of this statutory requirement in 28 CFR Part 22. In accordance with 28 CFR Part 22, applicants requesting funds for research or statistical activities must submit a Privacy Certificate with the application. The purpose of the Privacy Certificate is to ensure that the applicant has appropriate policies and procedures in place to protect the confidentiality of data identifiable to private persons. Specifically, the Privacy Certificate must be in compliance with the requirements of 28 CFR § 22.23. OJJDP has developed guidelines for preparing a Privacy Certificate in accordance with the confidentiality regulation. Copies of the Privacy Certificate Guidelines, a Privacy Certificate Face Sheet, and a Sample Attachment for a Privacy Certificate are available on the OJJDP Web site (ojjdp.ncjrs.org/funding/privacy.pdf).

Applicants are further advised that any project that will involve the use of human research subjects must be reviewed by an institutional review board¹ (IRB), in accordance with U.S. Department of Justice regulations at 28 CFR Part 46. IRB review is not required prior to submission of the application. However, if an award is made and the project involves research using human subjects, OJJDP will place a special condition on the award requiring that the project be approved by an appropriate IRB before federal funds can be disbursed for human subjects activities. Applicants should include plans for IRB review, where applicable, in the project timeline submitted with the proposal. A copy of “Confidentiality of Identifiable Research and Statistical Information (28 CFR Part 22)” is available on the OJJDP Web site (ojjdp.ncjrs.org/funding/confidentiality.pdf).

Coordination of Federal Efforts

To encourage better coordination among federal agencies in addressing state and local needs, the U.S. Department of Justice requests that applicants provide information on the following: (1) active federal grant award(s) supporting this or related efforts², including awards from the U.S. Department of Justice; (2) any pending application(s) for federal funds for this or related efforts; and (3) plans for coordinating any funds described in items (1) or (2) with the funding sought by this application. For each federal award, applicants must include the program or project title, the federal grantor agency, the amount of the award, and a brief description of its purpose.

¹ Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) are the governing bodies that assure that data collection efforts are in accordance with all relevant local, state, and federal laws to protect human subjects. Background information on IRBs is available from the National Institute of Justice (www.ojp.usdoj.gov/nij/humansubjects/index.html) and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (www.hhs.gov/ohrp/).

Most local and state governments, colleges and universities, hospitals, and private contract research firms have IRBs in place. Agencies that might be able to help you find an IRB to review your data collection plans for the purpose of the application include a local jail, hospital, mental health treatment facility, public health agency, community college, or four-year college or university. Try calling these agencies, explain that you are submitting an application for federal funding and are required to collect data on the children that you serve, and you therefore need IRB clearance and ask if they have ever encountered this situation and what they did about it. It is likely that at least one of these agencies will have some experience they would be willing to share.

IRB reviews are now available from for-profit organizations, if the potential applicant does not have access to an IRB through his/her own institution. They cost about $6,000-$10,000, and those costs would need to be built into the first year's budget. One could find those firms by querying the term “Institutional Review Board” with any Internet search engine.

You do not need to have IRB clearance at the time your application is submitted to OJJDP. In your application, you can outline the process for getting IRB clearance in your community. If possible, you should start the process, so that you could say in your application that your study/plan/design was under review by an IRB and give the expected date for final clearance. Applicants are not required to get final clearance until/if you are funded. In fact, some IRBs won't review a study until after funding is secured.

² “Related efforts” is defined for these purposes as one of the following: efforts for the same purpose (i.e., the proposed award would supplement, expand, complement, or continue activities funded with other federal grants); another phase or component of the same program or project (e.g., to implement a planning effort funded by other federal funds or to provide a substance abuse treatment or education component within a criminal justice project); or services of some kind (e.g., technical assistance, research, or evaluation) rendered to the program or project described in the application.

Faith-Based and Community Organizations

It is OJP policy that faith-based and community organizations that statutorily qualify as eligible applicants under OJP programs are invited and encouraged to apply for assistance awards. Faith-based and community organizations will be considered for an award on the same basis as any other eligible applicants and, if they receive assistance awards, will be treated on an equal basis with non faith-based and community organization grantees in the administration of such awards. No eligible applicant or grantee will be discriminated against on the basis of its religious character or affiliation, religious name, or the religious composition of its board of directors or persons working in the organization.

Financial and Government Audit Requirements

Discretionary grants are governed by the provisions of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) circulars applicable to financial assistance and the OJP's Financial Guide available from the OJP Web site (www.ojp.usdoj.gov/oc). The Guide includes information on allowable costs, methods of payment, audit requirements, accounting systems, and financial records. This document will govern the administration of funds by all successful applicants.

Audits of state and local units of government, institutions of higher education, and other nonprofit institutions must comply with the organizational audit requirements of OMB circular A-133, which states that recipients who expend $500,000 or more of federal funds during their fiscal year are required to submit an organizationwide financial and compliance audit report within 9 months after the close of each fiscal year during the term of the award to their cognizant federal agency.

Grantees must comply with the following OJP reporting requirements:

- ❖ Financial Status Reports (SF-269). Financial Status Reports should be completed and provided to the Office of the Comptroller's Control Desk within 45 days after the end of each calendar quarter during the grant period.
- ❖ Categorical Assistance Progress Reports (OJP Form 4587/1). Categorical Assistance Progress Reports should be completed and provided to the Office of the Comptroller's Control Desk within 30 days after the end of the June 30 and December 31 semiannual reporting periods.

Services to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons

Recipients of Office of Justice Programs (OJP) financial assistance are required to comply with several Federal civil rights laws, including Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VI") and the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 ("Safe Streets Act"), as amended. These laws prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, and sex in the delivery of services.

National origin discrimination includes discrimination on the basis of limited English proficiency (LEP). To ensure compliance with Title VI and the Safe Streets Act, recipients are required to take reasonable steps to ensure that LEP persons have meaningful access to their programs. Meaningful access may entail providing language assistance services, including oral and written translation, where necessary.

Grantees are encouraged to consider the need for language services for LEP persons served or encountered both in developing their proposals and budgets and in conducting their programs and activities. Reasonable costs associated with providing meaningful access for LEP individuals are considered allowable program costs.

The U.S. Department of Justice has issued guidance for grantees to assist them in complying with Title VI requirements. The guidance document can be accessed on the Internet at www.lep.gov, by contacting OJP's Office for Civil Rights at 202-307-0690, or by writing to the following address: Office for Civil Rights, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, 810 7th Street, NW., 8th Floor, Washington, DC 20531.

Single Point of Contact Review

Executive Order 12372 requires applicants from state and local units of government or other organizations providing services within a state to submit a copy of the application to the state Single Point of Contact (SPOC) if one exists and if this program has been selected for review by the state. A list of state SPOCs is available on the Office of Management and Budget Web site (www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants/spoc.html). Applicants must contact their state SPOCs to determine whether their programs have been selected for state review. The date that the application was sent to the SPOC or the reason such submission is not required should be entered in Block 3 of the Overview section of the GMS application.

Suspension or Termination of Funding

OJJDP may suspend funding in whole or in part, terminate funding, or impose other sanctions on a recipient for the following reasons:

- ❖ Failing to comply substantially with the requirements or statutory objectives of the appropriate Act, program guidelines issued thereunder, or other provisions of federal law.
- ❖ Failing to make satisfactory progress toward the goals, objectives or strategies set forth in the application.
- ❖ Failing to adhere to the requirements in the agreement, standard conditions, or special conditions.
- ❖ Proposing or implementing substantial plan changes to the extent that, if originally submitted, the application would not have been selected for funding.
- ❖ Failing to submit reports.
- ❖ Filing a false certification in this application or other report or document.

Before imposing sanctions, OJJDP will provide reasonable notice to the recipient of its intent to impose sanctions and will attempt informally to resolve the problem. Hearing and appeal procedures will follow those in U.S. Department of Justice regulations in 28 CFR Part 18.

Sample Project Abstract

The following is a sample project abstract.

In 2002, Johnson County had a truancy rate of 12 percent. Several studies have established that lack of commitment to school is a risk factor for delinquency (Dryfoos, 1990; Catalano et al., 1998). Although many factors are associated with truancy, previous research indicates a particularly strong correlation between truancy and lack of parental involvement (Catalano et al. 1998). The ABC Project seeks to increase the parental involvement in Johnson County's at-risk youth population to address the county's high truancy rate. The project's primary activity will be the operation of parenting classes for the parents of truant youth. The project will offer the classes twice a week for 12 weeks. The project seeks to serve at least 100 parents over a 2-year period. Progress will be measured by the number of participants attending the classes and the number of parents completing the 12-week course. The project will also track the truancy rates of the students of the parents who attended the classes for a year after program completion.

Sample Project Timeline

Month	Project Goal	Related Objective	Activity	Expected Completion Date	Person Responsible
1	Off-track student A begins garden/computer courses; students B and C begin homework/ tutoring.	Off-track students receive educational input when out of school, become reinvested in learning, and develop new skills in project areas. On-track students notice improvement in grades, attendance and mathematics and literacy skills.	Students designate and complete a certain project in these fields and learn about biology, math, art, design, and literacy through hands-on activities and active participation in a creative educational endeavor. On-track students receive individualized homework help and tailored "game-plan" for improved grades and attendance.	End of month 2.	Project Director, Alice Smith
2	Identify and provide counseling for at-risk students.	Provide individual and group counseling for up to 200 identified at-risk students. Referrals are ongoing throughout the school year.	Begin student referral process. Form 15 student peer groups consisting of 10 students and facilitated by coordinators who meet weekly throughout the year.	Ongoing.	Project Director, Alice Smith
3	Evaluation	Track student progress.	Administer quizzes and portfolio assessments, project progress assessment. Begin teacher check-ins, grade assessment, progress reports.	End of month 6.	Program Coordinator, John Smith
