

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Tribal Consultation Virtual Meeting

Thursday, June 25, 2020

3:30 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. ET

AGENDA

3:30 – 3:40 p.m.

Opening and Welcome

Judge Korey Wahwassuck, Cree
Audriana Mitchell, Colorado River Indian Tribes
Caren Harp, OJJDP Administrator

3:40 – 3:50 p.m.

Juvenile Justice Reform Act (JJRA) Tribal Provisions

Caren Harp, OJJDP Administrator

3:50 – 4:35 p.m.

Questions for Comments and Discussion

Judge Korey Wahwassuck, Cree
Audriana Mitchell, Colorado River Indian Tribes

- How can OJJDP best collaborate with tribes on the implementation of the provisions of the JJRA related to tribes?
- How can OJJDP support the involvement of tribal representatives on State Advisory Groups?
- How can OJJDP help improve tribes' access to resources from the State Title II formula funds? What barriers do tribes face in accessing these resources?
- How can OJJDP assist in increasing state and tribal partnerships that support programs and services for tribal youth?

4:35 – 4:45 p.m.

Tribal Youth Programs

Caren Harp, OJJDP Administrator

4:45 – 5:35 p.m.

Questions for Comments and Discussion

Judge Korey Wahwassuck, Cree
Audriana Mitchell, Colorado River Indian Tribes

- What actions can OJJDP take to encourage tribes to apply for discretionary grant programs that prevent delinquency and victimization?
- What types of programs can OJJDP offer that would enhance public safety and ensure youth are held appropriately accountable to both crime victims and tribal communities?
- What other specific assistance could OJJDP provide to help existing programs, support innovative ideas to expand programs, and provide additional training and technical assistance?

5:35 – 5:45 p.m.

Closing Comments and Next Steps

Judge Korey Wahwassuck, Cree
Audriana Mitchell, Colorado River Indian Tribes
Caren Harp, OJJDP Administrator