OJJDP Administrator Caren Harp

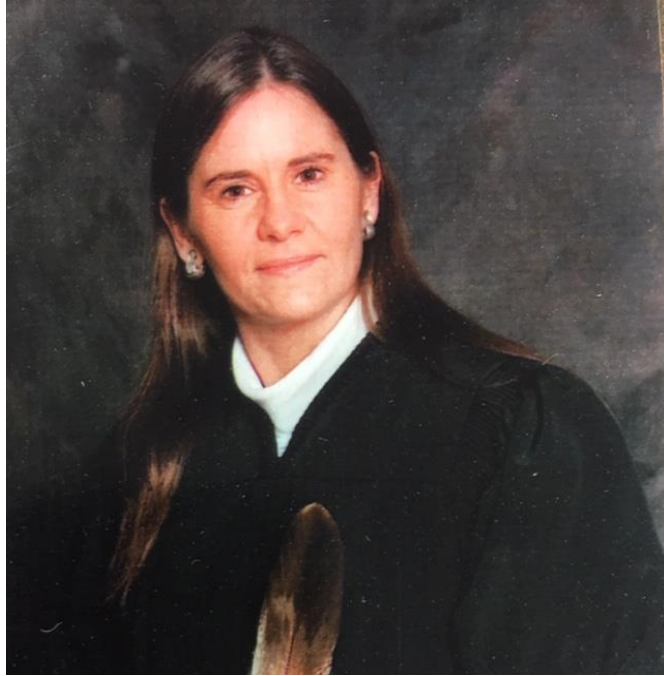

Vision

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) envisions a nation where our children are free from crime and violence. If they come into contact with the justice system, the contact should be both just and beneficial to them.

Mission

OJJDP provides national leadership, coordination, and resources to prevent and respond to juvenile delinquency and victimization. OJJDP supports the efforts of states, tribes, and communities to develop and implement effective and equitable juvenile justice systems that enhance public safety, ensure youth are held appropriately accountable to both crime victims and communities, and empower youth to live productive, law-abiding lives.

4:45 – 5:35 p.m. Questions for Comments and Discussion

5:35 – 5:45 p.m. Closing Comments and Next Steps

Juvenile Justice Reform Act

- Passed in 2018 and amended the original Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act
- New provisions related to Tribes

Title II Formula Funding

- Awarded to states to fund:
 - Effective state and local juvenile justice systems
- Protect public safety, hold juvenile offenders accountable and equip youth to live crime free

Title II Requirements

- Ensure youth are protected by adhering to the four core requirements
 - Deinstitutionalization of status offenders
 - Separate juveniles from adult inmates
 - Remove juveniles from adult jails and lockups
 - Reduce racial and ethnic disparities

New Requirement - State Advisory Groups

- Representative from an Indian tribe or an individual with experience in tribal law enforcement
- Minnesota and Idaho State Advisory Groups

Expansion of Title II Pass-Through Funding

- States with Tribes are required to pass through a specific amount of their Title II grant award.
- Many states pass through much more than the required amount.
 - South Dakota has used some of these funds for a probation officer dedicated to tribal youth.

Process for Providing Input

- To recognize the government-to-government relationship, we will first be taking comments from Tribal Leaders, then moving to other Tribal representatives before recognizing any other speakers.
- Please sign up to speak in the box titled “Speaker Sign up”
 - Please include your name and position
 - the Tribe you are representing
 - Whether or not you would like to appear on camera during your comments.
- Our facilitator will recognize speakers in the order that they appear in the Sign-in box.

Consultation Questions

- How can OJJDP best collaborate with tribal communities to implement applicable JJRA provisions?

- How can OJJDP support the involvement of tribal representatives in state advisory groups?

Consultation Questions

- How can OJJDP help improve tribes' access to resources from a state's Title II formula funds? What barriers do tribes face in accessing these resources?
- How can OJJDP help increase state-tribal partnerships that support programs and services for tribal youth?

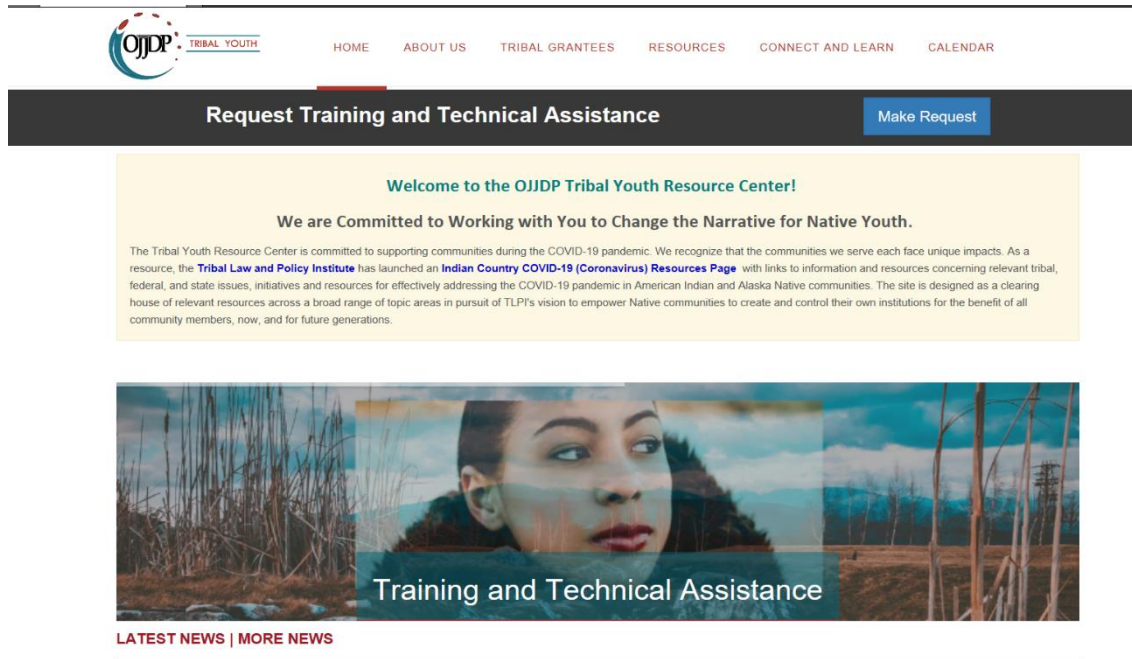

OJJDP Tribal Youth Programs & Funding

- OJJDP supports two Purpose Areas in CTAS.
 - Purpose Area 8 – Juvenile Healing to Wellness Courts
 - FY 19- 5 awards, 1.75 million
 - Purpose Area 9- Tribal Youth Programs
 - FY 19- 9 awards, $3,146,905

Other OJJDP Funding

- OJJDP FY 20 Tribal Children's Advocacy Center Expansion Initiative for Child Abuse Victims
- OJJDP FY 2020 Delinquency Prevention Program
 - Category 2: Tribal Delinquency Prevention Program
- OJJDP has many other programs that tribes are eligible to apply for and receive funding from.
 - A list of funding opportunities is available on OJJDP's website. All funding that was made available for FY 2020 can be seen at <https://ojjdp.ojp.gov/funding/expired>

Training and Technical Assistance for Tribes

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar with the OJJDP Tribal Youth logo and menu items: HOME, ABOUT US, TRIBAL GRANTEES, RESOURCES, CONNECT AND LEARN, and CALENDAR. Below the navigation is a dark banner with the text "Request Training and Technical Assistance" and a blue "Make Request" button. The main content area has a yellow background with the heading "Welcome to the OJJDP Tribal Youth Resource Center!" and the sub-heading "We are Committed to Working with You to Change the Narrative for Native Youth." Below this is a paragraph of text: "The Tribal Youth Resource Center is committed to supporting communities during the COVID-19 pandemic. We recognize that the communities we serve each face unique impacts. As a resource, the Tribal Law and Policy Institute has launched an Indian Country COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Resources Page with links to information and resources concerning relevant tribal, federal, and state issues, initiatives and resources for effectively addressing the COVID-19 pandemic in American Indian and Alaska Native communities. The site is designed as a clearing house of relevant resources across a broad range of topic areas in pursuit of TLPI's vision to empower Native communities to create and control their own institutions for the benefit of all community members, now, and for future generations." Below the text is a large image of a young woman looking to the side, with the text "Training and Technical Assistance" overlaid. At the bottom left of the image is the text "LATEST NEWS | MORE NEWS".
